

INTERNET ACCOUNT ACCESS AGREEMENT

Riceland Foods, Inc. ("Riceland") has developed a program to allow its patrons read-only access to information about their accounts with Riceland. The access is provided by a patron logging onto the Riceland Internet site (the "Site") through an Internet-service provider (unrelated to Riceland). The Site is maintained by an independent hosting facility ("IHO") and Riceland periodically supplies information to the IHO to post onto the Site.

Patron releases Riceland, its agents and employees from all liability resulting from an unauthorized disclosure of information through the Site.
2. Patron hereby releases Riceland, its agents and employees from any and all loss or damage to Patron or Patron's property as a result of acts of third-parties in connection with the Internet or from downloading or accessing files through the Internet.
3. Patron acknowledges and agrees that technical difficulties and human errors may impede access to the Site at certain times and that information on the Site about Patron and Patron's accounts may be subject to error. Patron understands that the official records on Patron and Patron's accounts will at all times be maintained by Riceland in its official books and records at its offices in Stuttgart, Arkansas and that in the event of any discrepancy between the information on the Site and information in the official records of Riceland, the information in the official records of Riceland shall prevail.
